Dear Parent/Carer of Year 4

To support Year 4's recent focus on learning about the history of Canterbury they will be visiting St Martins Church on Monday 22nd May.

St Martin's is the oldest church in the English-speaking world that is still in use. Its architecture is part Roman, Saxon, Norman and mediaeval. It was here that Queen Bertha prayed in 580 AD and later where St Augustine based his first mission in 597AD.

The children will be visiting in the afternoon, they will be having lunch at school as normal and be back in time for normal pick up at 3pm.

Kind regards,

Mrs E Campbell
Deputy Headteacher
