

Farmyard Fun

Communication and Language

- I will be able to describe what is similar between a farm in England and a farm in other countries.
- I will be able to write a simple sentence relating to a story I have heard.
- I will be able to plan and talk about what we need for a picnic party.

Physical Development

- I will learn to dance and move to music.
- I will begin to show accuracy and care when drawing characters from the story.
- I will be able to pass a ball and bat a ball between two people.
- I will learn to maypole dance and how to dance round it as a team.

Understanding the World

- I will be able to describe what changes happen on a farm.
- I will be able to make a map of a farm.
- I will be able to understand that farming in England is different to farming in other countries.
- I will be able to talk about how changing states of matter happen through cooking.

Expressive Arts and Design

- I will be able to make a farm from junk modelling.
- I will be able to draw farm animals and label them.
- I will be able to know what colours to mix to make other colours.

Personal, Social and Emotional Development

- I will be able to tell you what I should wear on a farm.
- I will be able to talk about how the change in weather helps a farm.

Mathematics

- I will be able to make number bonds to 10
- I know some odd and even numbers.
- I will be able to count beyond 20.
- I will be able to tell you some doubles to 10.

Literacy

- I will anticipate key events in the story.
- I will be able to segment and build key words related to the farm.

Key Vocabulary:

Farmyard Fun

